

Jen Cort

Educational Consulting

www.jencort.com

jencortedcon@gmail.com

301-318-2330

50 Easy Advisory Activities

1. Create a new tradition
2. Have an advisory walk-a-thon to raise awareness for a cause
3. Make snacks for another advisory
4. Participate in school pride events
5. Ask advisee to write a letter to him/herself with prompts such as “At the end of the year, I hope my teachers say.... about me” and “I hope my friends say....” Collect the letters, seal them in envelopes and return at end of year
6. Assign secret pals who do nice things for each other such as writing notes of encouragement
7. Make Valentine’s together for a Hospital
8. Practice “Random Acts of Kindness” (define what the term means for your advisory group and then perform acts)
9. Have an “advisory buddy” (pick another advisory to do activities, provide coverage for and celebrate events together)
10. Tell stories
11. Celebrate Holidays
12. Attend the games, plays, concerts and other activities of the advisory members
13. Celebrate birthdays
14. Learn about each other’s culture, background and family traditions
15. Review videos and books for each other
16. Interview a fellow advisee and then introduce to the group
17. Read a novel to advisees
18. Have a potluck
19. Offer periodic study hall
20. Silent time/device free time for reaching and simply being in the moment
21. Go to a movie
22. Silent reading

-
23. Play cards
 24. Create advisory posters depicting interests and passions of each member
 25. Discuss current events
 26. Take a hike
 27. Contribute an advisory donation to an auction
 28. Go geocaching
 29. Play board games
 30. Meet with another advisory group to discuss world events
 31. Play outdoor games
 32. Invite guest speakers
 33. Challenge another advisory to a game
 34. Visit a museum
 35. Share the week's "highs and lows"
 36. Develop a peer mediation program
 37. Form a book club
 38. Offer student to student academic support
 39. Write a newsletter
 40. Go on a community service outing
 41. Propose a spirit week
 42. Write a list of ideas for various committees
 43. Surprise another advisory by cleaning their room
 44. Celebrate a different member of the advisory each week
 45. Adopt a grade in the lower school
 46. Play board games
 47. Decorate the classroom to reflect the advisory
 48. Support each other in difficult times
 49. Celebrate each other in the good times
 50. Have fun!